Re: United States v. Wynee Joyner
08 Cr. 196 (SHS)

MEMO ENDORSED

Dear Judge Stein:

I represent Ms. Joyner in the above-captioned case, and write to request an adjournment of the initial status conference, currently scheduled for August 20, 2008 at 2:45 p.m. I have spoken to Assistant United States Attorney Michael Levy, who consents to this request, and no previous adjournments have been sought.

The reasons for the request are, because Ms. Joyner lives in North Carolina, I would like to (1) schedule her arraignment on the same day as the status conference; and (2) request a Transportation Order from the Court pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4285 to assist Ms. Joyner with the travel expenses.

The parties have been discussing a potential disposition of this matter, and Ms. Joyner consents to the exclusion of time under the Speedy Trial Act. The time is ablused four to that through 9/22/08, from fruid lut calculations. The Countries that the luds of justice served by this public. Thank you for your consideration of this request. Continuous outweigh the left interests of the public and the defendant mappenly tual pursuant.

The Confirme is algorithms to 9/24/08, at 2:30 p.m.
